There will be no procession for this mission. We will arrive at the cemetery and go to the back to the Mausoleum. We will place flags in front of the mausoleum, have our briefing, then stand by one of the static flags and wait for the arrival of the family. When the services starts, we will remove the flags, return them to the support vehicle, furl and stow them away and be dismissed. At this time the PGR will be folding and presenting the flag.
